

Cortegra is Awarded ISO 9001 Certification for All Facilities

FAIRFIELD, NJ – Cortegra, a dedicated partner for pharmaceutical packaging, proudly announces ISO 9001 certification for its facilities in Fairfield, New Jersey, Evansville, Indiana and Raleigh, North Carolina.

ISO 9001 is part of a family of standards for quality management systems. It is maintained by ISO, the International Organization for Standardization and administered by accreditation and certification bodies. A company that has been audited and awarded ISO 9001 certification has undergone a rigorous review and audit process and has been found to apply business practices consistent with quality products and services.

In order to earn ISO 9001 certification, Cortegra had to successfully meet the following requirements:

- Having a set of procedures that cover all key processes in the business demonstrating “Plan Quality In”
- Monitoring manufacturing processes to ensure they are producing quality products
- Maintaining accurate and complete records
- Checking outgoing product for defects, with appropriate corrective action where necessary
- Regularly reviewing individual processes and the quality system itself for effectiveness
- Facilitating continual improvement

A subsidiary of Menasha Corporation, Cortegra has the ability to bring single-source excellence to pharmaceutical packaging materials. With more than three decades of printing experience solely for the pharmaceutical industry, the company has become one of the recognized leaders in providing packaging and labeling services to the industry. In addition to folding cartons, Cortegra products include inserts and outserts, labels, flexible packaging, saddle-stitched booklets, foil pouches and lidding materials.

Cortegra is headquartered in Fairfield, NJ, with multiple facilities covering 3 states including locations in Evansville, Indiana and Raleigh, North Carolina. For more information, contact Cortegra by phone at (973) 808-8000, by fax at (973) 808-8010, or by visiting www.cortegra.com
