

Cortegra Appoints John Kay as the New Vice President of Operations

FAIRFIELD, NJ -- Cortegra Group, Inc., a leading provider of packaging solutions for the pharmaceutical and related industries, recently named John Kay as the new Vice President of Operations.

Mr. Kay was most recently the Director of Corporate Development and Effectiveness for J.J. White, Inc., a major Mid-Atlantic commercial construction organization. He also spent 15 years at Alcoa's Consumer and Flexible Packaging Divisions, where he held a series of leadership roles in operations management and lead continuous improvement initiatives across several facilities that served the pharmaceutical and other markets.

John holds a Master's degree in Industrial Administration with a concentration in Operations Management and Finance from Carnegie Mellon University. John also has a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from Virginia Military Institute and served in the U.S. Navy for four years. He resides with his family in a suburb of Philadelphia.

About Cortegra

A subsidiary of Menasha Corporation, Cortegra, headquartered in Fairfield, New Jersey, brings single-source excellence to pharmaceutical packaging materials. With more than six decades of printing experience solely for the pharmaceutical industry, the company has become one of the recognized leaders in providing packaging and labeling services to the pharmaceutical and related industries. In addition to anti-counterfeiting solutions, Cortegra products include labels, inserts and outserts, flexible packaging and folding cartons. For more information, contact Cortegra by phone at (973) 808-8000, by fax at (973) 808-8010, or by visiting www.cortegra.com.

# #