

Cortegra Group Inc. Promotes James A. Struhar to General Manager

Fairfield, NJ – Cortegra Group, a leading provider of packaging solutions for the pharmaceutical and related industries, today announced the promotion of James A. Struhar to the position of General Manager of Cortegra. His responsibility will be to lead Cortegra's business and supervise all of its departments, including Operations, Finance, IT, Human Resources and Packaging Solutions. Mr. Struhar previously held the position of VP of Finance & Control with Cortegra.

“Since joining Cortegra last year, James has demonstrated outstanding leadership ability and financial management skills,” said Denny Lee, VP of Specialty Businesses of Cortegra's parent company, Menasha Packaging Company. “His financial acumen, experience in the packaging industry and in-depth knowledge of Cortegra will prove to be most advantageous as the Company executes its long-term growth strategy. We feel fortunate to have him leading Cortegra's management team.”

Mr. Struhar, a certified public accountant, became VP of Finance and Control at Cortegra in June of 2007. Previously, he was VP of Finance Operations with Outsourcing Services Group (OSG), a leading provider of outsourced manufacturing and packaging services to the cosmetics, personal care, household and pharmaceutical markets. He had been with OSG since 1999 and also held the positions of Corporate Controller and VP Finance with the company. Prior to OSG he held successive positions with Charles Baynes USA, Implex Corporation, Osteonics Corporation and MCI International. Mr. Struhar holds a B.B.A. in accounting from Pace University and an M.B.A. from Long Island University.
